ALL NISEI VOTERS RETAIN PRE-EVACUATION RESIDENCE

Regarding the present voting status of Japanese Americans, Cameron H. King, registrar of voters, San Francisco, Calif., sent the following letter to R. B. Cozzens, field director of the Pacific Coast region.

"At the request of H. J. Jepsen of your office, I am stating my understanding of the registration and election laws respecting citizens of Japanese ancestry who have been removed from their California residences to war relocation centers.

1. They are citizens. That has been definitely established by recent court decisions. Their Japanese ancestry is immaterial.

LLEWELLYN, ASST FIRE HEAD, DIES

R. R. Llewellyn, assistant fire chief here since March, died from post-operative circulatory collapse Thursday at 11 p.m. Funeral services will be held tomorrow.

Llewellyn, who is survived by his wife, two sons and a daughter, was from Macon, Mo.

2. Their permanent residence is the place from which they were required to move by the Army Command as a defense precaution.

3. They have not lost that residence by reason of their removal, because that removal is for temporary purposes.

4. Whether adults or minors, the fact and the law of residence is the same. As for the minors, their residence at the time of removal was the residence of their parents and if they attain their majority while in the temporary residence of the relocation center, they still retain the right of claiming as their permanent residence the abode from which they, with their parents, were removed.

5. As citizens attaining their majority, they are entitled to exactly the
